

INTRODUCTION

England Hockey is committed to ensuring that young people are able to enjoy the sport of hockey free from harm, abuse and exploitation. As part of its commitment, England Hockey has published a Safeguarding Young People in Hockey (“SYP”) Regulations which everyone within the Hockey Family must comply with. England Hockey will challenge conduct that does not comply with; the policies, the regulations and any behaviour that has or is likely to pose a risk of harm to children or young people in hockey. These regulations set out a framework for England Hockey to investigate and decide upon such matters and the disciplinary actions that may be taken.

These regulations were made by the Board of England Hockey under the Articles of Association on 4 May 2021 and take effect from that date. Where any conflict arises with other regulations, rules or procedures relating to child protection/safeguarding young people and/or discipline, the regulations set out below will take precedence.

1. Definitions

- 1.1 ‘Appellant’ – the individual or organisation who has submitted a Notice of Appeal under 13 below.
- 1.2 ‘Board’ - the Board of directors for the time being of England Hockey.
- 1.3 ‘CMG’ – Case Management Group - the Group appointed under 17 and 18 below.
- 1.4 “Charge” - an allegation of grounds for disciplinary action under 5 below.
- 1.5 ‘Chair of CMG- the individual who has been appointed as such by the Chief Executive or Executive Director.
- 1.6 ‘Hockey Family’ – all individuals, clubs, associations, and other organisations involved in any capacity in the game of hockey, and whether or not members of England Hockey. For the avoidance of doubt, this includes all players and anyone working within hockey (in a paid or voluntary capacity, and whether as an employee or on a self-employed or other work basis) including all coaches, umpires, and other official
- 1.7 ‘Interim Suspension’ - a suspension imposed under regulation 8 below pending the conclusion of relevant investigations and proceedings.
- 1.8 ‘Safeguarding Young People (“SYP”) Appeals Panel’ - a Panel appointed under 20 below.
- 1.9 ‘Safeguarding Young People (“SYP”) Disciplinary Panel’ – a Panel appointed under 19 below
- 1.10 ‘Suspension’- a disciplinary sanction that may be made under these regulations by the CMG (under 11.1.2 below) or by the SYP Disciplinary or Appeals Panels (under 14.1 below).
- 1.11 ‘Young Person’ or ‘Young People’ – anyone under the age of 18.

2. Delegation

The powers of the Board to investigate and adjudicate upon complaints, and to impose sanctions under these Regulations shall be delegated to the CMG; the SYP Disciplinary Panel and the SYP Appeals Panel in accordance with these regulations.

3. Confidentiality

- 3.1 Disclosure and/or publication is provided for in these regulations or is in accordance with the law. In addition, where appropriate the outcome of these Procedures where required will be shared with the Statutory Authorities and other relevant bodies. Such bodies will include but are not limited to the Police, Children's Services, any national or international governing body external to the United Kingdom. Outside of these conditions all matters considered under these regulations, will, so far as practicable, be regarded as confidential and used only for the purposes of these regulations.
- 3.2 All persons considering complaints under these regulations will be expected to sign an appropriate confidentiality agreement.
- 3.3 Disclosure of Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) information obtained under these regulations will be subject to the DBS Code of Practice. For the avoidance of doubt, the Chair of CMG or such other Recipient of Disclosure Information on behalf of England Hockey may disclose Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) information obtained under these regulations to persons considering complaints under these regulations in the course of their duties.
- 3.4 All confidential information sharing will be done in accordance with all data protection legislation.
- 3.5 Where CMG considers it appropriate, they can seek external legal advice for any matters relating to these Regulations

4. Jurisdiction

- 4.1 England Hockey has disciplinary jurisdiction under these regulations over the following:
 - 4.1.1 all Members of England Hockey and all employees, volunteers, workers, self-employed individuals and officers thereof.
 - 4.1.2 all persons (including players, coaches, officials, umpires and officers) who are members of a club or other organisation which is a Member of England Hockey.
 - 4.1.3 all persons (including players, coaches, officials, , umpires and officers) who take part in hockey in any capacity directly or indirectly under the jurisdiction of England Hockey or any club or other organisation which is a Member of England Hockey.

- 4.1.4 all persons (including players, coaches, officials, umpires and officers) who have, whether by enjoying any form of licence, accreditation qualification, training or any other status from England Hockey, or otherwise, consented (expressly or impliedly) to be bound by these regulations.
- 4.1.5 all persons applying for a role within England Hockey's jurisdiction
- 4.1.6 all employees, volunteers, contractors, and officers of England Hockey.
- 4.1.7 once an investigation has commenced under these safeguarding Regulations, even if an individual gives up their membership, jurisdiction will still exist.
- 4.1.8 if an individual was caught under jurisdiction as set out in 4.1.1 to 4.1.6 when the allegation being investigated occurred, but is no longer a member, England Hockey will still have jurisdiction over them under these Regulations.
- 4.2 All Members of England Hockey are required to ensure that all persons referred to at 4.1.1 to 4.1.6 above are expressly bound by, and that their attention is drawn to:
 - 4.2.1 these Regulations;
 - 4.2.2 England Hockey's Safeguarding Young People Policy including England Hockey's reporting procedures;
 - 4.2.3 England Hockey's Code of Ethics and Behaviour.
 - 4.2.4 Should the person involved be an employee of England Hockey, the matter will be dealt with in parallel under the Disciplinary Procedures contained in the Employee handbook.

5. Grounds for disciplinary action

- 5.1 It shall be a ground for disciplinary action to be taken under these regulations where an organisation/person over whom England Hockey has jurisdiction is considered to have
 - 5.1.1 harmed the safety and/or welfare of a young person or young people either in hockey, or under any other conditions outside of hockey.
 - 5.1.2 carried out conduct (whether in hockey or not) which is deemed to pose actual or potential risk of harm to the safety and/or welfare of a young person or young people in hockey.
- 5.2 In reaching a decision as to whether there are grounds for disciplinary action in accordance with paragraph 5.1 above, account will be taken of any failure to comply with:
 - 5.2.1 England Hockey's Safeguarding Young People Policy including England Hockey's reporting procedures;
 - 5.2.2 England Hockey's Code of Ethics and Behaviour.

5.3 Where a person:

- 5.3.1 has a criminal conviction or recorded caution, or warning for an offence against or concerning a young person or young people; this would include juveniles cautions or warning or
- 5.3.2 is included on any statutory list barring, or restricting, their working with children or young persons
- 5.3.3 has a conviction for a serious offence which could or would indicate a risk to a child or young person (for example: murder, manslaughter or rape) the conviction or inclusion on a list shall be conclusive proof of grounds for disciplinary action.

6. Complaints and allegations

6.1 A complaint, allegation or matter relating to the safety and/or welfare of a young person or young people in hockey may be made to, or drawn to the attention of, England Hockey by any person or organisation within or outside the Hockey Family and under any circumstances.

7. Action following receipt of a complaint or allegation

- 7.1 Upon receipt of, or upon becoming aware of, a complaint, allegation or matter under 6.1 above, England Hockey's Chair of CMG shall decide (in consultation with the CMG if he/she considers appropriate), whether to:
 - 7.1.1 refer the matter to the relevant statutory agency(ies) for further consideration (and/or to review the matter following consideration by a relevant statutory agency). This may be done now or at any stage during the investigation : or
 - 7.1.2 instigate an investigation under these regulations; or
 - 7.1.3 refer the matter for resolution, or to be investigated at local level by a club, association or other organisation.
- 7.2 Where an individual has been charged with a criminal offence or is the subject of an investigation by the Police, Childrens Services or any other public or other investigatory authority, in respect of conduct which is or may be grounds for disciplinary action under paragraph 5 above, the CMG shall seek advice from the relevant agency as to whether or not England Hockey shall postpone consideration of the matter under these regulations pending the outcome of any such proceedings/investigation, and as to whether or not in the meantime, an interim suspension should be imposed under these regulations.

- 7.3 Where an investigation is commenced under 7.1.2 above, if CMG—considers it appropriate, may cease or postpone the investigation pending consideration under 7.1.1 or 7.1.3.
- 7.4 It will be at the discretion of England Hockey whether or not to commence or proceed with an investigation under these regulations where the complainant does not consent to his/her identity being disclosed to the subject of the complaint.
- 7.5 It will be at the discretion of England Hockey whether or not to proceed with an investigation under these regulations where the complainant does not wish to pursue an allegation. England Hockey will under these circumstances give consideration to the wider issues of safeguarding in hockey.

8. Interim Suspension

- 8.1 In the circumstances set out at 7.1.1 or 7.1.2 above, the CMG acting with the delegated authority from the England Hockey Chief Executive has the power to impose an immediate interim suspension if he/she considers by reference to the factors at 8.2 below that it is appropriate to exclude an individual concerned from any involvement in hockey under the jurisdiction of England Hockey which might involve access to young people, until the conclusion of all proceedings/investigations mentioned at 7.2 above or under these regulations.
- 8.2 The factors to be taken into consideration are:
- 8.2.1 whether the safety and/or welfare of a young person/young people is/ are, or may be, at risk of harm;
- 8.2.2 whether a suspension is necessary or desirable to facilitate the conduct of any investigation or proceedings by England Hockey or any other authority or body, having regard in all cases to the need for any action to be proportionate.
- 8.3 The CMG shall as soon as reasonably practicable, notify the individual concerned of the interim suspension,.
- 8.4 An interim suspension shall be reviewed by the CMG at appropriate regular intervals, taking into particular consideration the factors outlined at 8.2 above and whether the circumstances or facts surrounding a case justify the continuation of the interim suspension.
- 8.5 When an individual is under interim suspension, England Hockey shall bring and conclude any proceedings under these regulations as soon as reasonably practicable.
- 8.6 Any breach of an interim suspension shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action under these regulations.
- 8.7 The decision of CMG to impose an interim suspension can be appealed to the England Hockey Chief Executive whose decision will be considered to be final.

9. Investigation

- 9.1 Where England Hockey instigates or continues with an investigation under these regulations, the CMG shall make all (or any further) inquiries considered necessary to establish the facts and circumstances of complaint, allegation or matter.
- 9.2 England Hockey shall give the individual or organisation concerned notification of the complaint, allegation or matter under investigation. It will be a matter for England Hockey to determine at this stage how much information is given, however it must be sufficient for the individual or organisation to know the matter(s) under investigation.
- 9.3 The identity of the complainant, or complainants shall be made known to the individual or organisation concerned unless the CMG determines that there are compelling reasons not to.
- 9.4 England Hockey's inquiries may include, but are not limited to, contacting and obtaining information from the following
 - 9.4.1 the Police
 - 9.4.2 Childrens Services;
 - 9.4.3 any other authority involved in the protection and welfare of young people;
 - 9.4.4 any other person or party as deemed appropriate by England Hockey. Where it is considered necessary to obtain information from a young person, contact will be made on behalf of England Hockey by an appropriately trained Child Protection specialist, this will be via a parent / guardian where possible.
- 9.5. In carrying out its function, England Hockey shall have the power to require:
 - 9.5.1 the attendance, upon reasonable notice, of any individual or representative of any organisation mentioned in 4.1 above, to answer and provide information:
 - 9.5.2 the production, upon reasonable notice, by any individual or organisation individual mentioned in 4.1 above, of documents, information or other material in whatever form held;
 - 9.5.3 where considered appropriate, that an individual against whom a complaint or allegation has been made, or to whom the matter relates, undertakes a Disclosure and Barring Service Enhanced level and Barred List check
 - 9.5.4 where considered appropriate to make themselves available to attend a formal interview. They will be allowed to have legal representation (at own cost) or a person attend in support who is not in any way connected with the case. 72 hours' notice of the name and details of the accompanying person must be provided to CMG ahead of any formal interview.

- 9.5.5 if the person is under the age of 18 they must attend with an appropriate adult which could be a parent or guardian.
- 9.5.6 all interviews will be audio recorded and copies will be provided to the individual(s) on request.
- 9.6 Where England Hockey requests the individual or organisation against whom a complaint or allegation is made, or such other individual or organisation mentioned at 9.5 above, to comply with a reasonable request or requirement as part of the investigation under these regulations, any failure to do so may amount to grounds for disciplinary action under these regulations.
- 9.7 At the conclusion of an investigation, CMG shall decide the appropriate course of action in accordance with regulation 10 below.

10. Case Management Group Decision

- 10.1 Upon conclusion of an investigation, the CMG shall decide:
 - 10.1.1 if satisfied that the investigation has established that there is no case to answer, the case shall be dismissed.
 - 10.1.2 if the individual or organisation concerned partly or wholly admits the complaint, allegation or matter and the CMG is satisfied that there are grounds for disciplinary action as defined at 5 above and that it is a 'Summary Offence' (as defined at 11.1), then the Summary Procedure shall be invoked (see regulation 11 below); or
 - 10.1.3 if the individual or organisation concerned does not admit the complaint, allegation or matter; or where the individual or organisation admits the complaint or allegation and the CMG considers there are grounds for disciplinary action but is not satisfied that the case is appropriate for the Summary Procedure, then the Safeguarding Young People Disciplinary Procedure shall be invoked (see regulation 12 below); or 10.1.1 or 10.1.2 or 10.1.3.
 - 10.1.4 where the matter does not fall within the scope of the CMG they may refer the matter under the England Hockey Disrepute Complaints Regulations to be considered
 - 10.1.5 where the matter does not fall within the scope of the CMG they may refer to any other governing body, authority or organisation which would be better placed to deal with the complaint
- 10.2 Prior to reaching a decision under 10.1, the CMG may direct that further inquiries be undertaken.
- 10.3 Where CMG considers it appropriate, they can seek external legal advice for any matters relating to these Regulations

11. Summary Procedures

- 11.1 A Summary Offence is one where the CMG believes that the appropriate disciplinary order should be no more than:
- 11.1.1 a warning; and/or
 - 11.1.2 an order specifying certain training to be undertaken; and/or
 - 11.1.3 an order requiring an individual to be monitored in specific matters; and/or
 - 11.1.4 a suspension for a period not exceeding 28 days; and/or
 - 11.1.5 a Risk Assessment be undertaken (at individuals cost)
 - 11.1.6 that no sanction should be imposed.
 - 11.1.7 any others sanction or conditions which are felt necessary by the CMG
- 11.2 Upon a decision by the CMG under 10.1. shall send written notice to the individual or organisation concerned:
- 11.2.1 informing him/her/it of the decision,
 - 11.2.2 if 10.1.2 applies, confirming the charge formally, setting out a summary of the supporting facts and evidence,
- 11.3 When an individual against whom a charge is made was under the age of 18 years when the alleged matter occurred, correspondence will, if reasonably possible, be addressed to the individual in question and his/her parents or guardian or an appropriate adult.
- 11.4 The CMG shall as soon as reasonably practicable notify the individual or organisation concerned of the decision and the disciplinary order, and shall otherwise publish the matter in accordance with 15 below.
- 11.5 The individual or organisation must have signed to confirm that they will comply with the disciplinary order, failure to do so will immediately involve regulation 12.
- 11.6 If u18 then his/her parents or guardian or an appropriate adult should countersign to confirm compliance with the sanctions and that they have been read and fully explained to the young person concerned
- 11.7 Failure to comply with and complete the full disciplinary order with amount to a breach of these Disciplinary procedures.
- 11.8 There shall be no right of appeal against the decision and/or disciplinary order under the Summary Procedure.

12. Safeguarding Young People (“SYP”) Full Disciplinary Procedure

Notification

- 12.1 Upon a decision by the CMG at 10.1.3 above, or if the individual or organisation concerned does not consent to the summary procedure being followed, the CMG shall send written notice to the individual or organisation concerned:
 - 12.1.1 informing him/her/it that the matter will be dealt with under the SYP Full Disciplinary Procedure,
 - 12.1.2 confirming the charge formally, setting out a summary of the supporting facts and evidence, and
 - 12.1.3 enclosing the evidence in support of the charge, or if not available at that time when the evidence will be submitted.
 - 12.1.4 requiring his/her/its written response to the charge within 15 days.
- 12.2 When an individual against whom a charge is made was under the age of 18 years when the matter alleged occurred, correspondence will, if reasonably possible, be addressed to the individual and will also be copied to his/her parent or guardian or appropriate adult. The parent or guardian or appropriate adult may respond on the individual’s behalf.

Pre-hearing procedures

- 12.3 Once the reply to the charge has been received, or if no reply is received within the prescribed period under 12.1.4 above, the matter shall be referred to the Chair of the Safeguarding Young People (“SYP”) Disciplinary Pool who will appoint Panel members to hear the matter (in accordance with regulation 20.1 and 20.2 below).
- 12.4 The individual or organisation concerned shall be given at least 30 days’ written notice of the date, place and time of the hearing. In exceptional circumstances and if all parties agree, the hearing can take place via a secure video conference facility.
- 12.5 At least 15 days before the hearing the individual or organisation concerned must provide details of any witnesses and/or supply evidence that he/she/it intends to bring before the SYP Disciplinary Panel. If without good reason such evidence is not furnished to England Hockey at least 15 days before the hearing, the individual or organisation concerned will not be permitted to rely upon that evidence at the hearing without permission from the Chair of the SYP Disciplinary Panel.

Presenting the case

- 12.6 The Chair of CMG will appoint a legal or other representative on their behalf to present the case to the SYP Disciplinary Panel on behalf of England Hockey.
- 12.7 The Chair of the Panel reserves the right to call the individual and or organisation and England Hockey to a prehearing meeting (phone or in person) should any matters require a determination and action prior to the hearing

Representation

- 12.8 The individual or organisation charged, appearing before the SYP Disciplinary Panel shall have the right to be represented by a legal or other representative of his/her/its choice at his/her/its own expense.
- 12.9 In addition, if a charge against an individual under 18 years of age results in a hearing, the parents or guardian shall also be entitled to be present in support and may make additional representations as the Chair of the panel thinks fit.

Hearing procedures

- 12.10 The SYP Disciplinary Panel shall have the power to regulate its own procedures. Subject to that power, the hearing shall generally be conducted in accordance with the following regulations.
- 12.11 A breach of procedure under these regulations shall not invalidate the proceedings unless, in the opinion of the SYP Disciplinary Panel, such breach seriously prejudices the position of the person or organisation charged.

Private Hearing

- 12.12 All proceedings of the SYP Disciplinary Panel shall take place in private. The public and press shall have no right of access. The SYP Disciplinary Panel shall not issue any press statement or conduct any press conferences. All press/media announcements in relation to any decision of the SYP Disciplinary Panel shall be approved by an Executive Director of England Hockey.

Proof and Evidence

- 12.13 The burden of proving the charge, on the balance of probability, rests with England Hockey.
- 12.14 The SYP Disciplinary Panel shall not be obliged to follow strict rules of evidence and may admit evidence as it sees fit and accord such weight to the evidence as it thinks appropriate in all the circumstances.

12.15 Where the evidence for the charge relates to:

12.15.1 a criminal conviction or caution falling within 5.3 above, or

12.15.2 a previous finding of guilt in any other judicial or quasi-judicial proceedings, including that of another sports national governing body or statutory agency proceedings related to the welfare of children, it shall be presumed that the individual was guilty of the offence for which he was convicted or cautioned, or of the charge for which he was found guilty, and/or that the facts and matters upon which the conviction/caution/finding of guilt was made were correct

12.16 A previous finding of fact under Clauses 12.15.1 and/or 12.15.2 shall be conclusive proof that the individual does pose a risk to young people and the charge is proven.

12.17 Anyone under the age of 18 years when the allegation/incident occurred is not required to attend a hearing before the SYP Disciplinary Panel to give evidence in person. A young person's statement may be read to the SYP Disciplinary Panel to constitute his/her evidence.

12.18 No witnesses (whether they have given evidence or not) will be allowed to sit in on the hearing, other than where express permission has been given by the SYP Disciplinary Chair

12.19 The SYP Disciplinary Panel may at its discretion consider anonymous evidence provided the limitation of such evidence is taken into account by the Panel.

Adjournment

12.20 The SYP Disciplinary Panel may, on request or on its own volition, adjourn the proceedings, whether prior to a scheduled hearing date or during the hearing, if it considers it just to do so.

The absence of the individual/organisation charged

12.21 If, at the hearing, the individual or organisation charged is not present or represented, the SYP Disciplinary Panel may proceed to hear the matter in his/her/its absence if satisfied that, following receipt of notification of the matter under 9.2 above, all reasonable steps have been taken to give notice of the hearing to the individual or organisation concerned.

Order of proceedings

12.22 The order of proceedings, unless the Chair otherwise directs, shall be as follows:

12.22.1 submissions by England Hockey

12.22.2 hearing of witnesses called by England Hockey, followed by cross-examination, provided that if a young person is called by England Hockey, (subject to 12.15) he/she may only be cross examined on behalf of the individual or organisation charged, by a suitably qualified person or qualified solicitor or barrister. If the individual or organisation charged is not legally represented, the SYP Disciplinary Panel will, at their sole discretion, ask questions relevant to the issues in the case, requested by the individual or organisation charged.

12.22.3 submissions by the individual or organisation charged

12.22.4 hearing of any witnesses called by the individual or organisation charged, followed by their cross examination by England Hockey

12.22.5 closing submissions by England Hockey

12.22.6 closing submissions by the individual or organisation concerned

12.22.7 Members of the SYP Disciplinary Panel may themselves at any time question witnesses, parties or their representatives

12.22.8 The SYP Disciplinary Panel shall then retire to consider in private whether it finds the charge proved and shall return to announce its decision.

Order of proceedings following a finding that the charge is proven

12.23 If the SYP Disciplinary Panel finds the charge proved, it shall seek recommendations as to the appropriate disciplinary order from England Hockey's representative. For the avoidance of doubt, the SYP Disciplinary Panel is not, at this stage, required to provide a written report on finding the case proven.

12.24 The individual or organisation against whom the charge has been found proved may make any mitigation to the SYP Disciplinary Panel. Once the SYP Disciplinary Panel have heard the mitigation they shall then retire in private to consider the appropriate disciplinary order.

Order of proceedings where charge is admitted

12.25 Where the individual or organisation appearing before the SYP Disciplinary Panel admits the charge, England Hockey will outline the case and then the individual or organisation admitting the charge shall make any mitigation to the SYP Disciplinary Panel either in person or in writing. Once the mitigation has been given, England Hockey shall then have the opportunity to present to the SYP Disciplinary Panel its recommendations for the appropriate disciplinary order.

Risk assessment

12.26 The SYP Disciplinary Panel at their own direction may adjourn prior to reaching a decision on the appropriate disciplinary order, after a finding, in order to obtain a risk assessment on the individual or organisation concerned.

12.27 The cost of any Risk Assessment will be borne by the individual or organisation concerned.

Decision on disciplinary sanctions

12.28 The SYP Disciplinary Panel may make any one or more disciplinary sanctions in accordance with regulation 14 below.

Notification of decision

12.29 The SYP Disciplinary Panel having decided on the disciplinary sanctions shall communicate its decision to the individual or organisation charged either at the time of the hearing or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. In all cases the SYP Disciplinary Panel shall produce a summary of written reasons for its decision. This shall be conveyed to the individual or organisation charged (and, where deemed appropriate by England Hockey, to the complainant) as soon as possible, and in all events within 14 working days of the date of notification of the decision.

12.30 England Hockey shall otherwise publish the matter in accordance with 15 below.

13. Appeals

Right of Appeal

- 13.1 An individual or organisation may submit a Notice of Appeal with supporting evidence against a finding of guilt and/or disciplinary sanctions by the SYP Disciplinary Panel only on the following grounds:
- 13.1.1 that the SYP Disciplinary Panel misdirected itself in its conduct of the matter; or
- 13.1.2 that the SYP Disciplinary Panel's finding was based on error of fact; or
- 13.1.3 that the SYP Disciplinary Panel exercised its discretion wrongly in reaching its decision.
- 13.2 England Hockey has a full right of appeal in the same terms as the individual or organisation.
- 13.3 The burden of proving the appeal, on the balance of probability, lies with the appellant.
- 13.4 The appellant is responsible for fully preparing their case including preparing and providing the bundles and case files to England Hockey and the Appeals Panel.

Notice of Appeal

- 13.5 The individual or organisation submitting a Notice of Appeal shall be known as the "Appellant" and shall have 30 days from the date of notification of the SYP Disciplinary Panel's decision to submit the Notice of Appeal to England Hockey. The other party shall be known as the "Respondent".
- 13.6 The Notice of Appeal must contain a statement of the grounds upon which the appeal is brought, either 13.1.1 or 13.1.2 or 13.1.3 and the supporting facts and matters including the evidence upon which the Appellant intends to rely.

Appeals Panel

- 13.7 Having received the Notice of Appeal the Chair of the SYP Appeals Panel will consider whether the Notice of Appeal satisfies regulation 13.1 and if it does a SYP Appeals Panel shall be appointed to consider the matter in accordance with regulation 21 below.
- 13.8 If the Chair of the SYP Appeals Panel deems the grounds are not met the Individual will be advised of this, setting out the reason(s) for rejecting the appeal.

Powers of the Appeals Panel

- 13.9 The SYP Appeals Panel will consider all of the documents and evidence submitted to the hearing before the SYP Disciplinary Panel and, subject to any explanation given pursuant to 13.5, shall receive fresh evidence and may, at its discretion, re-hear any witness called before the SYP Disciplinary Panel.
- 13.10 The SYP Appeals Panel may uphold vary or set aside the decision of the SYP Disciplinary Panel and may substitute any other finding or order (on such terms and conditions if any) as it considers appropriate in accordance with regulation 14 below.

Notification of hearing and exchange of information

- 13.11 Following the formation of a SYP Appeals Panel, the Appellant shall be given at least 30 days' written notice of the date, time and place of the appeal hearing. In exceptional circumstances and if all parties agree, the hearing can take place via a secure video conference facility.
- 13.12 At least 15 days prior to the date of the hearing, the Appellant must submit, consistent with the grounds of appeal set out in 13.1;
- 13.12.1 any such fresh evidence that he/she/it wishes to rely upon which must be directly related to the grounds for the appeal; and
- 13.12.2 the names and addresses of any witnesses whom he/she/it wishes to call in person, and an outline of what each witness is expected to say.
- 13.12.3 the appellant is responsible for full case file preparation and circulation to England Hockey and SYP Appeals Panel
- 13.13 At least 7 days prior to the date of the hearing, the Respondent shall, if he/she/it intends to rely on fresh evidence or to seek the agreement of the SYP Appeals Panel to the re-hearing of any witness called before the Disciplinary Panel, provide the Appellant with the fresh evidence which he/she/it wishes to rely upon, together with the names and addresses of any witnesses which he/she/it wishes to call in person and an outline of what each witness is expected to say.
- 13.14 Neither party shall without the consent of the other or the permission of the SYP Appeals Panel rely on any fresh evidence or call any witness
- 13.15 The Chair of the Panel reserves the right to call the individual and or organisation and EH to a prehearing meeting (phone or in person) should any matters require a determination and action prior to the hearing.

Presenting, or responding to, the appeal

- 13.16 The CMG will appoint a legal or other representative on his/her behalf) to present, or respond to, the appeal (as appropriate) on behalf of England Hockey.

Representation

- 13.17 The individual or organisation appealing or responding to an appeal, shall have the right to be represented before the SPYP Appeals Panel by a legal or other representative of his/her/its choice at his/her/its own expense.
- 13.18 If the individual concerned is under 18 years of age, the parents or guardian shall also be entitled to be present and make such representations as he/she thinks fit on the young person's behalf.

Hearing procedures

- 13.19 The SYP Appeals Panel will consider whether the grounds for appeal set out in 13.1, 13.2 and/or 13.3 have been met and shall have the power to regulate its own procedures. Subject to that power, the hearing of an appeal shall generally be conducted in accordance with the following regulations.
- 13.20 A breach of procedure under these regulations shall not invalidate the proceedings unless, in the opinion of the SYP Appeals Panel, such breach seriously prejudices the position of the person or organisation appealing or responding to an appeal.

Private hearing

- 13.21 All proceedings of the SYP Appeals Panel shall take place in private. The public and press shall have no right of access. The SYP Appeals Panel shall not issue any press statement or conduct any press conferences. All press/media announcements in relation to any decision of the SYP Appeals Panel shall be approved by an Executive Director of England Hockey.

Adjournment

- 13.22 The SYP Appeals Panel may, on request or on its own volition, adjourn the appeals hearing if it considers it just to do so.
- 13.23 The absence of the individual or organisation
- 13.24 If, at the appeals hearing, the individual or organisation appealing or responding is not present or represented, the SYP Appeals Panel may proceed to consider the matter in his/her/its absence if it is satisfied that all reasonable steps have been taken to give notice of the hearing to the individual or organisation concerned.

Order of proceedings

- 13.25 The order of proceedings for the appeals hearing, unless the Chair otherwise directs, shall be as follows:
- 13.25.1 Submissions by the Appellant;
